Classic battle lines being drawn on zoning

PLEASANTON — Neal Street resident Bonnie Krichbaum hopes the city will create some sort of "historical zoning district" to save part of Old Town from the wrecker's ball.

But City Attorney Ken Scheidig said yesterday it's doubtful whether such a "zone" could be created. However, he did offer hope for anyone who wants to single out individual historic properties.

Krichbaum started to become actively interested in preserving Old Town east of First Street when a controversy arose over the moving of the Presbyterian Church. Krichbaum wanted the church to remain in its present Second and Neal Street location instead of moving out to Mirador Drive's "suburbia."

Although she and others in her neighborhood lost that battle, they still are interested in keeping the old-fashioned character of the neighborhood.

Their fears center on a long strip from Kottlinger Avenue to Pleasanton Middle School between First and Second Streets which now contains many old homes, but which is zoned for duplexes.

The duplex zoning went on the strip many years ago, before the recent Victorian renaissance downtown which has seen people move out of their new suburban ranch houses and into houses dating back 50 years or more. Probably a large part of Pleasanton would like to see the old Victorian character of the neighborhood kept. The battle which is shaping up is the classic one, already being fought in the valley between ranchers and city types, which pits private property considerations against the public's desire to have a nice looking environment.

Just as ranchers feel that the public should pay for the benefits of open space, there no doubt are owners of old homes in Pleasanton who had banked on getting multiple zoning and who feel that if they can't use their property the way they want, they should be compensated for it. It could be the next big "aesthetics versus dollars" arena.

The "heritage zoning" asked by Krichbaum may be a bit far-fetched, judging by City Attorney Ken Scheidig's opinion. In San Diego in a legal case, the city was able to require a new gas station to design its structure to conform to the city's heritage theme, said Scheidig.

It's even possible to designate individual buildings as historical and if they are to be demolished by the private property owner, the city can get first option to buy it instead of seeing it destroyed, he said.

But Scheidig doubts that an entire historical zone could be put on a neighborhood. There have not been any cases on it, though, as far as he knows. Maybe the cumulative effect of designating many buildings in one small area would have the same effect as creating a zone, he said, but much legal research would be needed before he could come to any conclusion about it.

Las Positas crossing bid seems lost

PLEASANTON — Assemblyman Floyd Mori failed to get three more votes needed to put the city's Las Positas Boulevard overpass on the list of preferred state freeway projects late Wednesday.

Mori's office confirmed yesterday what a local delegation feared after their testimony before the Assembly Transportation Committee Wednesday.

Mori's secretary said that some of the five committee members missing from the hearing were out of town and Mori was unable to round up the three necessary votes.

The committee voted 5-5 on a motion to put the Las Positas project on a five year priority list. Total membership of the committee is 15, so at least eight votes were needed to carry the motion.

The committee's disapproval of the motion may have killed Pleasanton's chances for state funding of the overpass, at least for this session. However, there still may be some hope on the horizon.

Assemblyman John Foran will introduce a bill in the Legislature next week which would change the manner of funding state highway projects. The end result could be more funding for certain categories which would apply to the overpass. If so, it could increase the possibility of state funding for the overpass.

Currently the highway department has a continuous appropriation, which means the Legislature and the governor have no direct control over the highway funds. Foran's bill would put highway budgeting under the Legislature and the governor.

Foran's bill would not allow funding of specific projects directly, but it would be possible for Mori and Pleasanton to ask for more money in a broad general category which would apply to the local overpass, according to Foran's aid, Tom Sweetman.

Sweetman is confident that the bill will pass the Assembly. "It will get support from members who have had it with the highway funding situation," he said.

More money, more costs at park & rec

PLEASANTON — More revenues and more expenditures are on tap for the park and recreation budget next year. Park and Recreation Director Bob Caparuso told the park and recreation commission Wednesday night.

He presented a self-supporting $374,000 spending program which commissioners will study jointly over the next few weeks with the city council. Overall income shown in the budget is more than $674,000.

Commissioners also heard Director of Engineering Services Don Sooby make a plea for lighted walkways in Amador Community and Hansen Parks. The lights would cost $25,000 and Chairman Chuck Gielow questioned the priority over needed improvements for tot lots and other recreation uses. Sooby said the walkways, especially the Amador Park walkway, get use from the community. The one in Amador Park would link the community center and library to the shopping center, he noted.

County's suit

Frustration boiled over

Alameda County doesn't like playing political wedge for the state's Health Department.

The decision this week to sue its Sacramento mentor and demonstrate on the steps of the Capital was made neither lightly nor in haste, but after months of frustration with a bureaucracy "that is accountable to no one at the state level," county Mental Health Director Dr. Susan Mandel claims.

The state took $1.2 million from local programs in a move board of supervisors chairman Fred Cooper calls "arbitrary and unprecedented."

He says state director Mario Obledo admitted the move was arbitrary, but a week later announced another, more serious, $1.7 million cut from the county's allocation of service at state mental health hospitals.

The first cut is bad enough, Dr. Mandel says, but the last one is "ridiculous."

The county is allotted about 75,000 patient days per year, the doctor says, a figure "with no rhyme or reason that's simply picked out of the year."

At the end of the fiscal year, the state bills the county 10 percent of the costs incurred above the allotment.

But Obledo's second dictum orders the county to pay 100 percent of the estimated over-utilization costs — in advance.

"Lots of counties go over their allotment," Dr. Mandel says, "but we're being singled out."

"The state says we're the biggest user, but it also admits we've got the highest unemployment; are fifth largest in the state and have the fourth largest need, and are ranked about eighth or ninth in funds."

"It's ridiculous. It makes no sense."

The correlation between unemployment and a corresponding decline in mental is well documented, she adds.

A study in New York state over a 126 year period shows "unemployment the single most significant factor in mental health," according to the doctor.

And while the national unemployment average is 7.8 percent, California's is more than nine percent. "Oakland," she says, "is at 15.4 percent, with West Oakland at 27 percent, Hayward at 12.9 and the county at 13.1."

The cuts mean that "ten years from now you'll have problems in the valley because there's been no help for kids now."

Murray board appoints 13 to study unit

Murray School District trustees last night named 13 members to a special citizens advisory committee to study housing needs for seventh and eighth grade youngsters.

Appointments included the following: Mrs. Sharon Collins, representing Cronin School; Mrs. Linda Cooley, Donlon School; Mrs. Karen Grant, Dublin School; Mrs. Liz Tirneta, Fallon School; Harry Molz, Frederiksen School; Mrs. Lu Ann Dahl, Lydixsen School; Robert Scheppler, Murray School; Mrs. Sandy Erle, Nielsen School, and Mrs. Marilyn Goodnight, Wells Intermediate School.

Representing the Murray Teachers Association on the committee will be Mrs. Doris Battin. The district's classified employees will be represented by Charles Valente and administration by Wallace Moreskine. Named to the group from the Murray Board of Trustees was Peter Snyder.

The action was taken following a special board meeting.

County Mental Health Director Dr. Susan Mandel.

cial cannot get in to see Gov. Jerry Brown.

"There's a lack of accounting at the state level," she continues. "No one points a finger at these guys and asks 'Why are you doing it this way?'"

But a breakdown at the county level — particularly a large, vocal, often feisty one like Alameda — could open the Governor's door.

Hence the supervisors plans for a demonstration and the suit.

City youth in Sunol

Students of Anna Yates Elementary School in Emeryville made their second visit to "the country" Thursday when they spent the day with students at Sunol Glen School. The exchange visit program started last year when Sunol Glen students spent a day in "the city" at Anna Yates. For most of the large minority population of Anna Yates, it was the first time they've experienced life in a country atmosphere and the chance to play with farm animals such as the rabbit youngster at right is holding. Approximately 70 youngsters came from the inner-city school to Sunol Superintendent-principal George Bury and the Sunol Glen staff hosted the second and third grade students.

Kangaroo Kaper leaves press puzzled

This is ridiculous. The Loch Ness Kangaroo, unseen since Wednesday's two separate sightings, was not lost by the John Armstrong Circus. Turns out the circus doesn't have a kangaroo.

And while Pleasanton won't allow the little blighters, the county's Animal Control Department says there are no kangaroos — in Alameda County.

But... Two people phoned Wednesday to say they spotted it bounding across town.

One commuter called police early in the morning, pleading them not to hang up or think of him as drunk or crazy, to report the First Kangaroo Sighting in Pleasanton.

A woman, begging anonymity, called The Times late that same afternoon to say that she had seen it. She didn't know of the First Sighting. Thought we'd consider her crazy or something, and wouldn't call the police.

Now the police think we're crazy.

But... Even her two kids saw it. Yes, they know what a kangaroo looks like. Saw it "bounding across a field" near the Val Vista Recreation Center.

All of which could mean that someone in Pleasanton or its environs owns an illicit kangaroo.

Used to own an illicit kangaroo? Or — Pray tell, never — your faithful reporter is gullible. Damned gullible.

Trivia giant clash

The Cheese Factory and The Times will match trivia wits tonight in the "First Annual Trivia Bowl" slated for the Sunol Valley Country Club "trivia arena" at 8 p.m.

Tickets, priced at $2.50 per person, are available at Cooper, McKenzie, Murphy, Chamber of Commerce, and The Times. Tickets will be available at Sunol and all proceeds go to building of a Pleasanton Bicentennial Bandstand.

Tonight's initial contest pits the Pleasanton Rotary and Pleasanton Lions for the "club championship" of the valley.

Three hurt in Vineyard Avenue accidents

PLEASANTON — Three persons sustained minor injuries in two unrelated accidents on Vineyard Avenue Tuesday night.

A Highway Patrol spokesman said Richard L. Ankeny of Foster City lost control of his 1972 Vega while coming around a curve, jumped a four-foot embankment and rolled over, tearing out 76 feet of barbed wire fence. His passenger, Stephen Howard of Komandorski Village in Pleasanton received minor injuries in the rollover.

Later the same night, a car travelling on Vineyard Avenue driven by Quita Perry of Ventura Avenue in Livermore ran off the road and hit a post. She was treated and later released from Valley Memorial Hospital.

Her passenger, Leroy A. Christman of Leland Way in Livermore sustained minor injuries in the crash. The spokesman said Christman was attempting to teach Perry to drive when the accident occurred.

Man arrested for passing altered currency

PLEASANTON — An 18-year-old Pleasanton man was arrested on suspicion he altered a $2 bill to resemble a $20 bill, police reported.

Danny Ray Jones of 1634 Calle Santa Anna was arrested at his home and booked at Santa Rita Jail on suspicion of altering currency, a federal offense.

Police said cashier at a self-service gas station, who knew Jones personally, accepted the bill for a $2 charge and gave Jones $18 change. She later noticed the center of the bill was a $2 note, with cut corners of a $20 bill taped on.

Two $20 bills allegedly found in Jones' wallet had two corners cut from each, one the left side and another the right.

Jones was being held at Santa Rita Jail pending the arrival of a U.S. Marshall, police reported.

Brakes fail, car crashes into Dairy Belle

PLEASANTON — The Dairy Belle restaurant in the Val Vista Shopping Center was briefly converted into a drive-in Wednesday morning when a car whose brakes failed crashed through two of the diner's large plate glass windows. No injuries were reported.

Police said a 17-year-old girl was attempting to park her car and eat lunch there shortly before noon when her car's brakes failed. The car jumped the small curb and crashed through the restaurant, the bumper just touching a table at which a young girl was eating.

No monetary estimate was placed on the damage. The windows were replaced immediately, and business resumed as normal.

$900 in tools taken from truck on Guilford Avenue

LIVERMORE — Burglars forced open the left wing window to William Charles Waldo's Peterbilt truck early Wednesday and took a tool box containing approximately $900 worth of tools.

Waldo told police that most of the tools in the large box were engraved with the initials "W.W." The collection included wrenches, socket sets, ratchets, and other tools. Police have no suspects in the case.

Three youths arrested in attempted burglary

LIVERMORE — Three Livermore youths were arrested Wednesday on suspicion they attempted to break into the vacant MacDonald's Pharmacy in the Rincon Shopping Center.

Two youths told a passing policeman they saw three persons on top of the pharmacy attempting to enter. Back-up units arrived, and police watched as the suspects appeared on the roof.

Under police questioning, the suspects admitted they wanted to steal drugs from the store. Two of the suspects were booked in juvenile hall due to prior burglary convictions, while the third was released to his parents with a notice to appear in court.

(Editor's Note: this is the concluding part of a two-part series on vandalism.)

PLEASANTON — One of the best ways to curb school vandalism is to get students at school to look after it themselves, believes Walnut Grove School Principal Tony Huff.

"Every week, one pod at our school has responsibility for the playground. They sweep up the paper and gravel and we also have a contest to recycle the aluminum cans picked up on the playground. All the money goes directly into the playground," said Huff.

"You have to plan direct experiences so children are involved in the school. They have to feel it's their school. If they hate it because it is not humanistic, they have no feeling for it, no allegiance to it," he said.

The playground at Walnut Grove is a big discourager of vandalism, too, said Huff. It consists of old tractor tires and many other odd and interesting things that can be twisted, bent and kicked around.

"The playground gives kids a chance to manipulate the environment. It focuses the younger kids away from the buildings," said Huff.

Another factor in vandalism is boredom, said Huff. There are many sports programs in town, but not all kids are interested in them, he said. Other types of programs are needed, too, he thinks.

Parental responsibility may have some bearing on vandalism, too, said Huff. "Everybody tells a principal 'Do what is necessary' until it's their own child," he said.

"When their kid is responsible for vandalism, many parents start looking for alternatives. It's not true in all cases, but it does happen. There are many cooperative parents, but some say 'My little kid could not have done this thing.'"

The dollars and cents about vandalism last year have been noted up by Mike Ananos, the Director of Buildings, Grounds and Transportation for the combined Pleasanton Elementary and Amador Valley High School districts.

Most of the damage was glass breakage and damage to lockers. In some instances of glass breakage, clumsy accidents, not purposeful vandalism, was involved. Ananos can't break down the figures precisely, but the total for all glass breakage last year was $2,000 in the elementary district and $2,500 in the high school district.

Hardware damage amounted to $1,500 for both districts. Ananos didn't have any figures ready for the labor involved in locker repair.

There have been a few instances of cars damaging baseball field turf, but the district was lucky enough to catch the violators and charge them for the damage, said Ananos.

The district's business manager, Doug Rose, said that vandalism in the district has its ups and downs, like a sawtooth curve, but overall the level is low, especially compared to other areas.

"I've attended meetings on it, but it never gets beyond the definition of vandalism. It seems to be one of those eternal truths you deal with," said Rose.

Valley goes Democratic

The popularity of Democratic Party candidates and issues continues to grow within the Valley's several communities.

Registration totals released by the Secretary of State as of January, 1976 indicate that the trend which became evident several years ago, is now building toward a Democratic landslide.

Even Pleasanton — one of the last bulwarks of Republicanism in Alameda County — was solidly in the Demo camp this year with a 5460 to 5280 margin. Four years ago the GOP held a similar bulge over its main contender.

Livermore continued its Democratic tilt with a 1976 registration of 9332; the Republicans signed up just 7042. When the nation was getting ready to choose between Richard Nixon and George McGovern, four years ago, Livermore gave the Democratic Party a 1000-vote registration edge.

While registration totals for unincorporated communities are not published, the 1976 figures indicate that the First Supervisorial District (including Dublin, Pleasanton, Liver-more, Fremont) has a solid Demo bulge — 40,337 to 28,079.

Congressman Peie Stark has a healthy two-to-one Democratic edge going for him in the 9th Congressional District.

Contra Costa County's Fifth Supervisorial District (including Danville and San Ramon) recorded almost a two-to-one margin for Democrats in 1976; four years ago the bulge was seven-to-four.

All of the January, 1976 registrations totals are down from previous reporting periods, an indication of last year's light voter turnout and — thus far at least — mild voter interest in the 1976 primaries.

Also losing out are some of the "splinter parties" that were showing strength a few years ago. In January of 1976, the American Independents had just 27 followers in Pleasanton, 65 in Livermore. Peace and Freedom Party recorded 3 and 12 in the two cities.

The Fifth Supervisorial District in Contra Costa County recorded one registered voter for each of those two parties.

'Hard times' test contract talks

(The following is the first of two articles on the Murray School District teachers' contract proposal for 1976-77. The district administration will present their formal response to the proposal at a meeting Monday night.)

Chances of a bargaining impasse in the Murray School District this spring and summer may hinge on the effectiveness of the school board's newly appointed legal counsel, Keith Breen, and the willingness to compromise in light of increasingly difficult times.

Agreement on the present contract in force didn't come until after school had started.

The 72-page contract proposal presented by the Murray certificated employees council contains several sections that board and administration are almost certain to be far apart on.

In today's article, we will briefly review a couple of sections of the proposal, holding the more controversial ones until the second article.

Teachers are asking for a 1976-77 school calendar with 175 teaching days and just one work day. They have had 177 and 5, respectively, in the past.

The section on the "basic teachers salary schedule" was not filled in. CEC representatives stating they wish an "equitable schedule relative to the cost of living and what the district can afford." Teachers are, like almost all other districts, asking for the basic cost of living increase which would be tied to a recent Consumer Price Index for the Bay Area.

Some of the stumbling block sections could well be those dwelling on working conditions and health coverage.

One teacher request is that they not have to report to school more than 30 minutes before the start of classes.

Other requests include one stating that "the board provide $1,000 per year to the Council for the purpose of assisting the Council in establishing effective procedures for decision-making in implementing report responsibilities. Any funds not spent in any one school year shall be carried over to the next school year."

— by Al Fischer

Budget cuts hit teacher's aides

"equalize" the rest of the schools.

The school board will hear part of the story Tuesday night, when a petition is presented that bears signatures of 376 Rincon School parents asking the board to do something about the crisis.

Rincon was set up seven years ago as the last cry in modern education — an open-space school with its own librarian and enough aides so teachers could work with just a few children at a time in individualized projects.

Rincon's staff has been cut so drastically since then that next year, an aide will be in each classroom only half an hour a day. "Hardly worth having an aide at all," teachers there say in disgust.

At Smith, the district's second big open-space school, a furor is also developing. Principal Joe Malia says he too has half as much money next year as this year for aides — about $9,000 instead of this year's $18,000, which had been barely adequate.

It goes without saying that aides themselves are upset and demoralized. Although they only make an average of $2,200 a year for their half-day's work, many are certified teachers themselves and all are highly qualified to work with children.

They have taken great pride in developing their specialties and are distressed at being spread so thin next year that they won't do much good.

The problem began four years ago when school board members decided that if aides were really a benefit to education, all the schools should have them.

District elementary education chief Jack Waggoner came up with a plan that would give all schools the same number of aides per pupil. But the plan was staggeringly expensive.

Then, Waggoner came up with a more complicated plan that would gradually cut back the schools that had aides — Arroyo Mocho, Rincon, Henry, Smith — while building up the personnel at the rest of the schools.

After two years, the schools would be about even and would all gradually get their aide time increased from then on.

"But," said somebody, "what if a school would rather have a nurse, or a psychologist, or a resource teacher, than classroom aides?"

So the decision was made to give schools a lump sum, to be used at their discretion.

Much to the resentment of the staff in schools where aides were a crucial part of the program, the other schools were now getting tens of thousands of dollars to spend on anything from library aides to tape recorders.

Meanwhile, inflation ate up a big part of the school district's budget; more administrators were hired; the school board members started collecting $40 per meeting; and many other expenses came along.

The school district is still financing $120,000 under the aide program but, according to Director Jack Waggoner, "Everyone was treated equally last year but the formula for allocating money was different."

The net result was a continual, drastic decline in the amount of aide time at Rincon, Smith, Arroyo Mocho and Henry Schools.

Where will the district go from here? Rincon School representatives are hoping to influence the future with their Tuesday night presentation to the board.

Y-W Women

Mrs. Maxine Plastino, Livermore's "Zucchini Lady," will speak to the Y-W Women's Club Wednesday, May 5 at the First Baptist Church in Pleasanton.

Mrs. Plastino, after 40 years of research and recipe-testing, has written a cookbook containing 229 zucchini recipes. Her topic will be "How to Cut Your Food Budget by 25 Percent."

The Y-W Women's Club welcomes interested women to its meeting from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Child care is provided at a nominal fee. For information contact Diane Aguiar at 846-3763.

Parents

The New Parent Support Group invites the public to hear Bob Bronzan, dean of men at Livermore High School, in a discussion of "How, When and Why to Discipline" scheduled May 6.

Bronzan addresses the group at the Livermore Red Cross Building, 373 North L St., at 7:30 p.m.

Y-Pals

The Twin Valley YMCA is initiating a program for fatherless boys aged 7 through 12 called Y-Pals.

One adult leader and three to four boys will meet once a week after school, and take a weekend outing together once a month. The first meetings begin May 4.

An orientation meeting for interested boys and their mothers will be held Monday, May 3 at 7 p.m. at the YMCA Building in Pleasanton. For more information call the "Y" at 462-2211 or stop by its offices between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Life Center

Students, teachers, board members and friends of the Livermore Literacy Life Center will enjoy a 6 p.m. potluck supper Saturday, May 1 at the Asbury Methodist Church in Livermore.

Speaker for the evening will be Darryl H. Mailander with a program on dental health. Entertainment will be provided by the musical group "Praise."

Students from India, Harbanso Raju and Simro Dirdi will be presented with the certificate of completion for Series II during the program. Que Ha, student from Vietnam, will be presented the certificate for completion of Series I.

The public is welcome to the potluck at which guests will dress in bicentennial or native costumes. Each group or family will bring a dish to pass and table service.

The Life Center provides instruction and other services to non-English-speaking persons, including transportation to classes and child care. Those interested in the program may contact Director Maria Hopkins at 443-0191.

Emblem Club

Attending the California State Association of Emblems Clubs annual convention will be Anne Korinke, president of the Livermore-Pleasanton Emblem Club No. 413, along with Goldie Gregory, Catherine Marino, Sinclair Hines, May Luddington and Charlene Kelly.

The Emblem Club is a community-service organization affiliated with the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. The main project of the state association is the awarding of scholarships to qualified teachers of deaf and hard-of-hearing children.

The Livermore-Pleasanton club will enter its President's Memory Book, press book, Americanism book, historical book and bulletin in competition for state awards.

Charles Auer V.F.W.

Installation of officers for Charles Auer V.F.W. Post and Auxiliary is slated Friday, May 7 at the Pleasanton Veterans Memorial Building.

Mary M. Collier, a past district president, will conduct the 8 p.m. ceremony to seat the auxiliary officers: Dawn Rutter, president; Nita Knowlton, senior vice-president; Pat Morgan, junior vice-president; Vi Pready, chaplain; Ruby Stockinger, guard; Vivian McKenzie, treasurer; Mary Santos, historian; Bernadine Seguin, conductor; and Doris Harmon, trustee.

Felix Von Magnus, state sergeant-at-arms, will instate the following post officers: Walter Arnold, commander; Roy Knowlton, senior vice-commander; Mike Morgan, junior vice-commander; Alan Auer, quartermaster; John Rutter, chaplain; Jeff Jeffries, guard; Bill Pappas, surgeon; and John Fries, trustee.

The ceremony and reception to follow are open to the public. The Charles Auer V.F.W. Auxiliary was the recipient of several awards from District 14 for outstanding Rock Lee of the U.C. Berkeley basketball team and Gene Upshaw of the Oakland Raiders will be riding in the Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-thon Sunday for children such as Jennifer Purvis and Mark Hubenette.

Swing Club

The Swing Club of the United Voluntary Services, a group of volunteers which plays golf once a week with patients at the Livermore Veterans Hospital, will begin a new season May 5. For information contact Courtnae Magee at 846-3538.

Lunch and election of officers for the United Voluntary Services is on the agenda May 12 at Dublin's Refectory. For information contact Charlotte Synder at 846-3022.

Exchange

"Women in the Army" will be the topic for the May 6 luncheon meeting of the San Ramon-Amador Valley Exchange Club when it convenes at the Hungry Hunter restaurant in Pleasanton.

Sergeant Nancy Baggett, Army representative from the Fremont recruiting station, will describe opportunities available to women in the Army today.

Boss of the Year

Richard C. Wayne of Sandia Laboratories received the Boss of the Year award presented by President Jan Vandermolen on behalf of the Livermore Valley Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. Wayne was selected on the basis of a letter written by his secretary, ABWA Member Glenda Day, who submitted it to a panel of three business persons for evaluation. He is actively involved with the adult education board at St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Pleasanton. Wayne coaches and referees the under-10-years-old soccer league and directs Y-Indian Guides. A graduate of Cornell University, Wayne is married and has four sons.

Bike-a-thon Sunday

The first annual East Bay bike-a-thon for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation is set Sunday, May 2 beginning at two valley locations.

Riders, sponsored with donations to the foundation for each mile they complete, will start at 9 a.m. from Wells Intermediate School in Dublin and from Granada High School in Livermore. Adults will assist at check-points along the 25-mile routes.

Dublin riders will follow San Ramon Valley Boulevard, while Livermore riders will follow East Stanley Boulevard, First Street, Vineyard Avenue and Isabel Avenue.

I.O.O.F.

A reception honoring outgoing district leaders Martha and Ken Mangelsdorf is planned Saturday, May 1 at the Pleasanton I.O.O.F. Hall.

The 8 p.m. reception will be hosted by the Milpitas Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges of which the couple are members.

Women Aglow

The Pleasanton Women's Aglow Fellowship will welcome Mrs. Donna Navas, first vice-president of the Northern California Women's Aglow Fellowship, at its May 5 program at the Vineyard Mobil Villa Recreation Center.

A continental breakfast will open the meeting at 9:30 a.m. with the program at 10 o'clock. For information contact Vivian Terry at 846-9229 or Sharon Schnetz at 443-4912.

Sponsor sheets and details are available at schools, and Jack-in-the-Box restaurants. Or call toll free 800-772-3144.

Sports celebrities will join riders for the bike-a-thon, and prizes will be awarded to participants completing the route.

Funds raised with the project will support research, care and treatment for children of the Bay Area suffering from cystic fibrosis and other related children's lung diseases.

Sierra Club

The Livermore-Amador Regional Group of the Sierra Club has arranged a hiking tour up Pleasanton Ridge Saturday, May 1.

The four to five-mile loop trip, with about 2,000 feet of elevation change, features spring wildflowers and a litter clean-up.

Interested parties are requested to call Leader Del Wright at 447-7479 for details.

Dog club

New sessions of classes sponsored by the Del Valle Dog Club commence Monday, May 3 and Wednesday, May 5.

Classes are held at The Barn in Livermore and pre-registration is necessary. For information contact Carole Wilson at 455-4158.

Monday night classes include junior showmanship for young people aged 9 to 16 years at $15 for eight weeks; puppy training for dogs three to six months old at $9 for eight weeks; and conformation class conducted on a drop-in basis at $1.75 per session.

Wednesday night classes include beginning obedience exercises and advanced obedience training at $13.50 for eight weeks.

New president

Karen Taylor, who has four children ages nine months to nine years, admits that she suffered the social isolation typical of young mothers when she came to Livermore four years ago. The Valley Women's Club, of which she is now president, has changed all that providing Karen and her children with a weekly outing and the opportunity to make many new friends. The club offers a variety of programs on gardening, health care, fashion, safety and crafts to mothers while children may enjoy a playschool on Tuesday mornings at the Livermore Recreation Center. The 30 - member group is very receptive to newcomers, according to Karen, and often provides unique opportunities in its regular 'exchanges' of books, coupons or children's clothing. Karen is joined by new officers Carol Thorsness, Janet Gabrielson and Rosanne Lloyd. For information contact Glenna Ganow at 443-7079.

Valley women

The annual plant auction for the Valley Women's Club is set Tuesday, May 4 at the Livermore Recreation Center.

Judy Havelvich will conduct the auction of pots, seeds, plants hangers and plants which is open to all valley women.

Playschool facilities are available for children aged two months through six years. Reservations for the playschool must be made with Mitze Kashiwamura at 447-6962 before 2 p.m. Monday prior to the meeting. For information contact Karen Taylor at 443-7385 or Carol Thomas at 443-4487.

Hasseltine event

A fund-raising dinner-dance will be held Friday in honor of Fifth District Supervisorial Candidate Eric Hasseltine in Antioch.

The event will be held at the Antioch Hall, with live music and entertainment accompanying a spaghetti dinner. Tickets at $5 apiece may be reserved by calling Hasseltine, Antioch Headquarters at 754-1976.

Hasseltine is one of seven candidates for the seat on the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors being vacated by Edmund Linscheid of Pittsburg. San Ramon is part of the Fifth District.

That 'Old Gang'

"The same old faces, the same old ex-mayors and ex-politicians who have screwed things up for the cities" are back and want now to "screw up Zone 7," Ken Hart, candidate for the Zone 7 Board of Directors said in a press statement issued yesterday.

That "old gang" of politicians, Hart charged, were "the very men who put the cities of Livermore and Pleasanton in the red. They were on the LAVWMA Commission and could not come to an agreement with Zone 7. They were on the VCSB board when it had a million gallon effluent over-run every day."

Hart declared these men are not "the best men for the job. They have tried and couldn't handle it."

Hart, citing his two years of civil engineering in college and 23 years as a contractor, said he is the man to handle the position.

"I have the basic knowledge of what it takes to make things go, and that's what Zone 7 needs; not more politicians; not more intellectuals; but just plain common sense and practical experience," Hart concluded.

Political rally

PLEASANTON — Ken Hart, candidate for Zone 7, will sponsor an old fashioned political rally tomorrow at the Alameda County Fairgrounds from 1 to 5 p.m.

Admission is free. Children are invited to attend with their parents, please. Beer and hot dogs will be sold for ten cents each, and coke for five cents. Entertainment will be provided. The event will be held in Section B, next to the pee wee golf range.

Register to vote

The deadline to register for the June 8 election is drawing near. The League of Women Voters will be registering people throughout the valley this weekend.

On May 1 and 2 and May 7 and 8, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., registrars will be at the Safeway and Granada Shopping Centers in Livermore, the Safeway Shopping Center on Santa Rita Road in Pleasanton, and at Mervyn's in Dublin.

People may also register at the city halls of their respective cities. Registration closes May 9.

Green Valley Creek area opposes flood control work

Leshar News Bureau

MARTINEZ — Residents along Green Valley Creek in Danville don't want the county to make any improvements to the stream.

Improvements made to the creek so far, have distressed people living upstream between the communities of Danville and Diablo, the Board of Supervisors has been told.

Harry Donaldson, speaking for some of those residents, noted, "Those of us who live upstream are dismayed and appalled at the money spent and the work done."

Donaldson raked the county's flood control improvements planned for the creek, declaring there is little likelihood of a "100-year flood" occurring.

County officials told him that federal requirements enabling the county to take part in a national flood insurance program virtually force the county to design flood control projects to handle the water runoff produced during the hypothetical 100-year storm.

Joe Taylor of the county public works department explained that the county is considering building reservoirs to hold creek water runoff and make any flood control improvements to the area with as little environmental impact as possible.

Supervisors referred the matter to the government operations committee for review before any decisions are made regarding improvements to the creek.

Joyful conventioners

Be Kind to Animals Week

Veterinarians slate open house

It's Be Kind to Animals Week, and veterinarians throughout the valley are extending invitations to pet owners and those interested in animals to an Open House on Sunday, May 2 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Valley veterinarians join the Alameda County Veterinarian Medical Association in this program. This is first year veterinarians have held a state-wide Animal Care Day.

Hospitals and clinics will be open during the afternoon to talk with visitors, show them medical facilities, offer tips on pet care and preventative medicine and view advances in veterinary medicine.

Brochures and health care pamphlets will be available at no charge to guests and visitors. Hospital staff members will be on hand to answer questions.

Hospitals and clinics participating in the Open House program are:

Amador Veterinary Clinic, 306 Neal St., Pleasanton. Animal Hospital, 41 South O St., Livermore. Del Valle Pet Hospital, 2127 First St., Livermore. Dublin Veterinary Hospital, 7410-D Amador Valley Blvd., Dublin. Livermore Veterinary Hospital, 2494 Railroad Ave., Livermore. Parkway Veterinary Hospital, 6851 Village Pkwy., Dublin.

Sunol Valley Animal Clinic, 3004 Andrade Rd., Sunol.

Town and Country Veterinary Hospital, 923 Santa Rita Rd., Pleasanton.

Some 15 per cent of all the Doctors of Veterinary Medicine practice in California in the fields of large animal medicine, research, education, government, private industry, zoos and small animal practice.

There are 1,387 hospitals and clinics in the state.

SRV parks unit seeks fees

DANVILLE — The R-7 parks advisory group would rather have developers pay in-lieu fees than donate land for parks in San Ramon.

The Citizens Advisory Committee for County Service Area R-7 this week decided not to require Shapell Industries to donate land for a park.

Instead, the developer will pay a fee that will be used to build a neighborhood park when an elementary school is built near Shapell's subdivision.

The subdivision is near Montevideo Drive in San Ramon at the southern boundary of the park service district.

In other action, the citizen's group turned down an offer by Broadmoor Homes Inc. for a three-acre park site near Crow Canyon Road, San Ramon.

The group decided maintenance costs would be too great.

Pleasanton tags Alves for housing unit seat

PLEASANTON — Ed Alves was appointed to the housing authority board of commissioners Tuesday night after public interviews for the position.

Share $16 million

United funds flow to Valley

Valley agencies are sharing in almost $16 million being given out by the United Way charity organization.

Pleasanton's nutrition program for senior citizens will get a shot in the arm, sharing an $80,000 award with other programs of the Social Service Bureau of the East Bay. That award is $6,500 higher than last year's allocation.

Livermore's Family Service Bureau of the East Bay office will be sharing in $222,500 that was allocated to be shared among the bureau's four offices.

Other recipients of United Way money include the Jewish Welfare Federation of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, $179,000; the Alameda County Legal Aid Society, $32,000; the Salvation Army in the five-county Bay Area, $500,000; Travelers Aid Society of Alameda County, $81,950; Bay Area USO, $196,500; Volunteer Bureaus, $31,738 in Alameda County and $37,000 in Contra Costa County; and the Bay Area Federation of YMCAs, $890,000.

United Way collected just over $19 million this year. The organization is setting aside $1.3 million for "uncollectibles" — money pledged but discontinued when employees move, change jobs or are laid off.

Some $2.8 million is being used for administration, planning, campaigning, contingency fund and money for agencies which are still under review for admission this year.

United Way collected $572,000 more this year than last.

Faced with requests totaling more than $24 million, United Way budget panelists were forced to make increasingly difficult decisions this year, according to Adele Corvin, chairperson of the Budget Committee.

She said, "There were a number of unusual situations we felt United Way should speak to."

"We have seen unusual needs in hospitals — the results of malpractice problems, nurses' strikes and delay of funding from third party payors," she said. "We have responded to the needs of clinics, not to the level we would have wished, but at a level which will certainly help."

"We have also extended home health care services to areas where they're badly needed."

Mr. Murphy is exonerated

When this newspaper revealed that Supervisor John D. Murphy signed a "property owner's claim to tax exemption" in Nevada County for two or three years that he also voted and held office in Alameda County, we did so with the conviction that this information should be shared with his constituents.

We still feel that way, and we have no apology to make for the story, or for the facts as we revealed them. The "private" acts of public officials are no longer private when they might impact that office, or that person's right to hold office.

Our initial responsibility to print those facts is no less than our duty to follow that story to its conclusion. This we have tried to do in the weeks since that first startling disclosure.

Our conclusion must now be that—while Supervisor Murphy might have acted with something less than forethought when he signed his wife's tax exemption claim—there now appears to be nothing illegal about that claim. Not, at least, as far as any responsible authority is able to establish.

Since there is no one known to us who is prepared to press that matter, then we must conclude that the public is satisfied. So too are we.

This is an election year for the First Supervisorial District. The electorate's decision for that important post is tough enough without having one or more candidates hampered with unsubstantiated or uncertain charges.

Mr. Murphy has a clean "residency" position in the eyes of the law, and apparently also in the eyes of those who might have had reason to decide otherwise.

Now we can all proceed to judge his candidacy on the same standard applied to all who seek that office: Who is best qualified for the job?

More nuclear letters

Risk too great

Editor, The Times:

Proposition 15, the Nuclear Safety Initiative, has been put forth to insure safe operation of all nuclear reactors. If anything as dangerous as a nuclear reactor is not designed properly or is operated in an unsafe manner it should be shut down until it is safe. The risk is too great.

A nuclear reactor is basically an atom bomb under control. In order to insure that it stays under control reactor engineers design into a reactor every conceivable safety device. Most of these safety devices are backed up with secondary safety devices a redundant system. That is the way it is on the drawing board.

The Brown's Ferry Reactor was designed with a redundant safety system. However all of the control cables for this safety system went through one room. There was a fire in that room. This fire disabled many of the primary safety devices and the secondary safety devices. The result was the nearest thing to a nuclear reactor disaster that we know about.

Why were all the signal cables routed through one area? Why was this vital area not absolutely fireproof? This was an unsafe reactor. This accident was not some 1 in a billion chance accident. It was an accident waiting to happen.

A yes vote on Proposition 15 will perhaps guarantee that nuclear reactors are built safely and operated safely.

Prop. 15 'yes'

(The following letter was submitted for publication in Wednesday's Times. Mechanical error resulted in the last half of that letter, along with the signature, being deleted. The full letter follows as submitted. — Editor)

Editor, The Times:

As to T.E. Lannin's letter of April 23, better incredible ignorance ... which Mr. McClure's letter did not show ... than the incredible arrogance and misanthropy which Mr. Lannin's letter so clearly displayed.

The energy intensive legacy which he wants to leave to his children carries with it an escalated socio-economic conflict which is even now tearing the world to shreds and even now threatens the little enclaves like Pleasanton. Our energy intensive society has widened the gaps in our social fabric, fostering and nurturing the "we" and "they" separation which offers so little promise for that future which he hopes for.

And what's wrong with a labor intensive society? We have a vast natural resource ... the American worker ... which is more and more unused. Mr. Lannin, tour the "unemployment" offices and ask the millions whose lives are now empty because they are unused ... ask them to make the simple choice between more energy or more jobs.

What we proponents of Prop. 15 "want" ... and we all want different things ... has no bearing on anything. With Prop. 15 we have relinquished our "right" to decide, in favor of that group which represents all the people of California; we "want." Mr. Lannin apparently is not willing to give up his right to decide for us all. Perhaps it would be un-American to do so.

Fission energy is not the last resort ... unless we allow it to proceed without restraint. Our American talent has always been that, when challenged, we have looked for and found a better way. All it has taken is the courage to look and to resist getting bogged down in self-indulgence.

Mr. Lannin does not seem to have that courage. Hopefully others do. Vote Yes on Proposition 15.

Easter Seals

Each year, more than a quarter of a million disabled children and adults improve their lives with the help of Easter Seal rehabilitation services. The Easter Seal Society asks your help to continue its services to the handicapped.

Senator Presley's problems with the FPCC began in September when his office was contacted by a representative of the California Medical Political Action Committee with a request that he participate, along with several other legislators, in a seminar on medical legislation. An honorarium in the amount of $1,000 was sent to each legislator who participated in the event. Presley did not cash the check; rather he had his staff contact the FPCC in order to find out whether to treat it as taxable income or as a contribution to his campaign fund.

This initiated a protracted and ambiguous exchange between Senator Presley and the staff of FPCC, and exchange which did not result in a clarification of the question. Finally, on February 23, 1976, three months after the question was submitted, Senator Presley received a notification from the FPCC that he was to be charged with a violation of the Political Reform Act of 1974. This particular development was made more interesting by the fact, due to a lack of clarification by the FPCC, Presley had returned the check uncashed two months earlier.

The Commission persisted in pressing the matter, only to find their charges groundless. While their final judgement vindicated the Senator, it did nothing to compensate for the negative publicity generated by their blundering harassment.

My own experience with FPCC Chairman Lowenstein is equally chilling. On January 29, I received an unofficial letter from Lowenstein expressing his "personal" view regarding my abstention from a vote on a bill providing supplementary funding to

FOCUS/Career Day

The press & jobs

Foothill High School held its first-ever Career Day Wednesday at the school.

From all indications the event was a tremendous success and much of the credit must go to Audrey Aune, director of the Career Center at the school, and members of the Foothill High faculty.

Career days are nothing new to high schools. But, in the same token, they can be an effort in futility if the advance planning and the community participants (representing the various professions) do not put forth a sincere, realistic view of their respective professions.

This writer had the good fortune to meet with two sections of students interested in Journalism.

Journalism, more precisely the media, plays a major role in the affairs of almost every level of society.

"The press" has taken an increasingly influential role in political affairs of the city, state and nation.

I am not so sure that we have not stepped out of bounds in some areas.

Though this writer is undoubtedly part of a very small minority, I nevertheless feel the news media (newspaper, radio, television and public relations) is overdue for some soul-searching, an introspective review.

I believe former vice president Spiro

Agnew's comments re. the press were at once timely and refreshing (hence my comment about being part of a small minority).

I also believe that Watergate and Richard Nixon are not the greatest "scandals" or fiascos to hit this country in the 20th century.

Quite the contrary, I believe the state of the media represents one of the major black marks on this country's 20th century lifeline.

But this commentary does not speak to the primary point and that is guiding students toward a worthwhile profession—whether it be Journalism or manual labor.

The young person in high school today has a wider variety of job choices but he also faces many more potential hurdles than those of us who took our first full-time jobs in the 40s, 50s or 60s.

Hence, the appropriateness of Career Days.

Generally, the young people I encountered Wednesday presented themselves as eager and responsive, bright and not afraid to speak up. What a refreshing change after seeing and "hearing" the youth of the inner-city!

School paradox

Editor, The Times:

I am amazed at the paradox existing in our school system. On one hand, the district has essentially forced the "fundamental" school program at Joe Mitchell school to provide a separate but equal alternative track for those parents not in complete agreement with the fundamental or basic educational concept, and yet on the other hand, parents residing in the Granada High School attendance area are forced to transport their children across town to Livermore High School, assuming they can get them in there in the first place or they can put them in the SWIS program which principal Jack Lee has publicly labeled as "a place for reluctant learners." (In reality, SWIS is nothing more than another Del Val in the middle of Granada.)

In my own case, I have been told by the district that there is no space available at Livermore High School for my daughter, and even if there was, I would still be forced to transport her across town to meet her needs.

As a parent and tax payer, I demand at least the same consideration at Granada High School that has been given at Joe Mitchell School: A separate, but equal alternative to the Tuford program.

Carpet Baggers

Editor, The Times:

Instead of responsible "Advocacy Journalism" based upon well-researched fact, the editors of the Tri-Valley Herald/News advocate stiletto tongued tirades seething with snide "character-assassination" (most recent victims include Bill Zagotta, Glen Dahlbacka, and always Don Miller). Fortunately, most of these editorials are written in such spittle-bug foaming zeal and are so ridiculous that most of us can laugh and assign those temper tantrums to nothing more than the poison pens of Auntie Susie and Uncle Barry writing for "carpet-baggers Anonymous."

"I'm sorry, Charles! I can't seem to find a channel on which the news teams aren't laughing and giggling!"

round the town

They'll be gathering around the barbecue pits on May School Road this Sunday. Ranchers and politicians, city folk and country bumpkins.

The one thing they'll have in common this time is their appreciation of a good steak. Or some of those famous "Rod and Gun Club beans." Bring your own knife and fork. It's that kind of party.

The Livermore - Pleasanton Rod & Gun Club claims to be "the oldest social and fraternal bunch of Valley - wide interest." It most certainly has been one of the most colorful.

Since 1931 on a piece of ground "that we gained right of access to from the United States Navy. It was in the days when the Naval Air Station was here ... before the Atomic Energy Commission came."

Joe Mitchell remembers. His was the school that was nestled in that quiet east end of Livermore Valley. Before Sandia. Before the "Rad Lab." Before there was an atomic bomb, or the power to obliterate whole cities.

"When we finally had to move out, when the AEC decided we might breach national security, or something, we moved to our present grounds on May School Road." That was about 1950 The Livermore - Pleasanton Rod & Gun Club has flourished ever since, once the Bay Area's most active, one of the largest trap set ups in the western states.

"We were a little quiet during the war, but in 1946 a bunch of us got together to stage a barbecue at Walter Holm's ranch on Mines Road. There was an election of some sort that year, and every candidate and public official for miles around came to that barbecue "Joe Mitchell figures that's how it all started. The pattern has prevailed ever since.

"I would guess that no man who ever sought office in this end of Alameda County, and even some adjoining counties, would ever dare miss one of our barbecues "A command performance. To rub elbows with the cowboys, tap the wealthy ranchers, meet the city folk on common ground.

The political candidate of 1976 is not always in tune with the magic of the Rod & Gun Club barbecue. They don't even understand the magic of a charcoal steak, the persuasiveness of a high ball consumed in the wide open spaces.

Joe Mitchell remembers. And a few like him. The kingmakers of yesteryear. The power behind the city, the South County, and maybe even pieces of Contra Costa.

"A lot of our membership still comes from Santa Clara and Contra Costa counties," Joe will tell you. There are almost 500 in total. Every few years they host a state shoot on May School Road.

"Last time we figured that during just that four-day shoot, we used up seven and one-half tons of lead "Joe invited me to "multiply an ounce and a half per shot times 200,000 rounds" to verify his tonnage. "We'll bring somebody in pretty soon and mine that lead ... reclaim it for use again."

Trap shooters are among the earliest conservationists, and the early advocates of this Valley's good life.

Joe Mitchell saw it all through the eyes of a school teacher. Thirty seven of his 73 years were spent in public education.

"Seventeen of them in Livermore ... I came here as a principal and superintendent. Everybody did double duty in those days."

There were 15 certificated people on the Livermore School District payroll that year ... "including me." Joe Mitchell finally wound up his professional career some 15 years ago. They named a school after him. Some still seek him out ... "to discuss the way we used to do things."

He is not pleased "with the way our schools are going today." He is not happy with "teachers who seem to be doing everything but teach." Including outside jobs, businesses, agencies. "It's getting so teaching is the moonlighting half."

But Joe Mitchell is not a bitter old man. Far from it. He still has the spark of those half his years. He still has the pride that makes a man want to do for his town, his people, his favorite candidate.

And that's what the Rod & Gun Club 29th Annual Barbecue is all about. To people like Joe Mitchell. And those others, who can still remember Livermore and Pleasanton and Dublin "way back when."

Shooting starts at 9 a.m. They start feeding the crowd around noon. And the whole thing goes on and on. At least it used to, when all the politicians came to mend their fence, to scuff the dry earth, to talk about the price of beef and our chances for "beating that s.o.b. from over the hill."

The Valley clan was loyal, in those days. And hungry. And thirsty. The Rod & Gun Club barbecue was the year's best party, bar none. But bring your own knife and fork.

Lighter Times

Now that I have been elevated to membership on The Times Trivia Team, I have a strong interest in the sport. My interest is so strong, I've taken to making up a few trivia teasers for folks out there in readershipland. Examples follow.

1. Prior to the start of the Indianapolis 500 auto race, the announcer gets on the public address system and says:

a) "Gentlemen, start your engines."
b) "Gentlepersons, start your engines."
c) "Gentlefolks, place your bets."
d) "How many drivers want no-fault insurance?"

2. Hymie Schertzer played with what organization?

a) Boston Red Sox.
b) Glenn Miller Orchestra.
c) Federal government.
d) Hollywood.
3) Belmont Tudisco once earned distinction as:

a) a candidate for governor of Minnesota.

b) an All-American city.

c) a name invented by Bob and Ray.

d) a grove of redwoods in Yosemite Park.

4. What was the first line ever spoken on "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman"?

a) "What's a grown woman doing in pigtails?"

b) "No daughter of mine is going to a place like that!"

c) "Tom, what does this mean?"

d) "I know there is a larger meaning in all this."

There you have it, trivia fans. Sorry I don't have room to print the answers, but add one point if you manage to look up all the correct ones. Four correct makes you a "genius", three correct means you are "average", two correct means you cheated and one right means you did as well as I did.

ANOTHER VIEW OF

Proposition 9

By Senator
George N. Zenovich,
(D) Fresno

The people of California, smarting from the shock of the Watergate scandals, voted in good faith in 1974 for Proposition 9, the so-called Political Reform Act which appeared on the primary ballot that year. Many candidates for office also supported and actively campaigned for that measure. Now, hardly two years later, many people, citizens and politicians alike, are beginning to be disillusioned with "Prop 9" and with its enforcement entity, the Fair Political Practices Commission.

Several legislators have reacted against moves on the part of Commission Chairman Dan Lowenstein and Commission staff members that amount to seeming entrapment and intimidation. Ironically, one of the legislators most prominently involved in a confrontation this year with the Commission is freshman Senator Robert Presley, from Riverside, an ardent supporter of Prop 9 during the 1974 campaign.

For Friday, April 30, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Although you're extra sharp businesswise today, you'll work harder for others, especially the family, than you will for yourself.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) This is a day you must tell it like it is and avoid self-sounding phrases. Set an example. Stand behind your word.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Go after what is owed you, and no more. You'll only defeat your purpose by looking for a free ride.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) While you view things realistically today, dare to hope for a brighter tomorrow. Anticipate the obstacles to your dreams.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Time is on your side, so while you have the reserve strength don't think of quitting. Push, push, push!

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) There is nothing really new under the sun, so profit by experience. Once you get a foothold today, you can climb that ladder of success.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You can see things today that another can't and can help her sort out her affairs. However, don't let her believe she can get more than she's entitled to.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You won't shirk tough decisions today, but what you'll decide is not for yourself. It's for the good of someone else.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) This is the day they tally the score. If you were industrious, the returns will favor you. If not, expect payment relative to your efforts.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) People you know socially may be in a position to help you in other areas today. Don't be afraid to speak about serious subjects.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Work on projects today that you've previously set aside. Nothing is too tough if you've set your mind to it.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Take over quickly and manage situations today if you see others faltering. You have the strength of character and body others may lack.

Your Birthday
April 30, 1976

You won't be looking for an easy road this coming year. That's better for you. You'll get what you go after because you're willing to pay your dues.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Haste forces lucky squeeze

king of hearts in almost the same motion. West showed out and South stopped about as suddenly as a speeding car that has run into a concrete pillar.

Why didn't I remember to cash dummy's king of clubs at trick two? he asked himself. Then he played the hand out slowly, carefully and successfully. All he did was to cash his last two high hearts and run dummy's spades. His first four discards were two clubs and a heart and a diamond. His fifth discard was his last heart. East had been forced to unguard his queen of clubs to hold the 10 of hearts, so the ace and jack of clubs won the last two tricks.

"Haste makes waste," certainly applies in bridge. The game was match-point duplicate and North-South were playing that North's jump rebid to four spades would show a solid suit with six or seven winners. South bid Blackwood to make sure North held the ace of spades and then went right to seven notrump to collect the extra 10 points since honors are not counted in duplicate.

He won the first trick with the ace of diamonds and proceeded to cash the ace and

SR wins relay, tops Pokes

Livermore, which has had about as much success in past years with San Ramon High in track as Lewis and Clark spent in the winter of 1805, were victimized for the fourth time in as many years by the hungry Wolves yesterday in Danville. And so was the Cowboys' hopes of a title.

By virtue of a great SR mile relay victory and pole vault decision, the Wolves came from behind 62-60 to win 70-66.

To date, San Ramon is 4-1, tied with Amador and Livermore for the EBAL lead. The Wolves, who could have defeated the Dons if not for unlucky performances, consequently received better luck and much more.

Three contributing athletes were Paul Swenson, Fritz Venker and Mike Bowles.

Swenson, the top half-miler in the EBAL, toured the 880 in 2:00.4 fashion and also won the 440 in 57.0, before coming back to anchor the Wolves' winning mile relay team to an impressive 3:35.1.

In doing so, Paul took the baton, and made up 20 yards, catching the Cowboys' sophomore Victor Aguayo. Swenson ran a great 50.8 to Aguayo's 53.4.

"I just had faith," remarked Wolf coach Dan Stevens. "I had confidence in Paul as soon as he took the baton."

Stevens, who predicted a 70-66 SR victory, said "and we're going to be better next year than this year."

Venker, who elected to play baseball, sped to a 23.2 in winning the 220 and was second in the long jump and triple jump.

San Ramon, which held a slim lead through the first five events, was swept in the mile and two-mile runs by Cowboy ace Boyd Tarin. With the 1-2-3 finish Livermore went ahead 29-21 and 62-60.

Livermore won the frosh-soph division by a commanding score of 99-27. The Cowboys took both relays while Vince Farfan tossed the shot put and discus to victories.

Livermore also won the girls' meet with a convincing 77-23 decision. However, San Ramon's O'Connor won the 100 and 440.

Walden sets HJ record, Mats topple Mustangs

John Walden cleared 6-4 1/4 in the high jump to break his own school record and establish the EBAL's best mark thus far as Granada tripped Monte Vista, 85-51, yesterday in Livermore.

Walden's jump was more than an inch better than his previous best of 6-3 set in an early season meet. He failed three times to clear 6-6.

The Matadors received fine individual performances from Brian McSharry and Scott Campbell in recording their first league win in two weeks after losses to Livermore and Amador.

McSharry cleared 12-6 in the pole vault and just barely missed an attempt at 13-0. He set the school record Tuesday against Amador by going 12-7 1/4.

"He (McSharry) was high enough on his jumps of 12 and 12-6 to go 13 feet," He'll make it by the end of the season."

Campbell took three firsts in the meet, although not recording seasonal best times. He won the 330 low hurdles in 40.2, the 120 high hurdles in 14.8, and the triple jump by leaping 40-9.

Granada coach John Sai figured a closer meet between the two teams, but was satisfied still with the win. "We picked up a few places where they fell down," he noted.

Brad Curry won the long jump and 880 for the Mustangs, while Bill Fowler swept the sprints by taking the 100 in 10.5 and the 220 in 23.2 for Monte Vista.

Draw Watson ran a 52.4 440 to pick up an important first for the Mats.

Diana Stohr and Kathy Honour took four firsts each as the Granada girls breezed past the Mustangs, 77-23.

Stohr won the 100, 220 and 440. Honour took the long jump and 80-yard low hurdles in addition to running on both relay teams. Stohr anchored the 440-yard relay team.

The Granada frosh-soph team, behind Jeff Winkler's mile and two-mile wins, easily defeated Monte Vista, 103-33.

Thompson leads Denver to finals

DENVER (AP) — The Denver Nuggets are in the American Basketball Association championship round against the New York Nets, thanks mostly to a remarkable shooting exhibition by rookie David Thompson.

Hitting eight consecutive field goals at one stretch Wednesday night, Thompson led the Nuggets into the first ABA championship series in their nine-year history, whipping Kentucky 133-110 in the seventh game of their semifinal series. He scored 40 points, grabbed 10 rebounds, had five assists and stole the ball twice.

Denver, which finished in first place during the regular season, will meet the second-place New York Nets in the best-of-seven final series beginning here Saturday night.

"We've got one more to go now," said Denver veteran Ralph Simpson. "This feels good now, but our work isn't finished. We want the championship."

When the final round gets under way, the Nets will have had a week off since winning their seven-game semifinal against the San Antonio Spurs.

Amador crushes Foothill, 115-20

Taking twelve out of sixteen firsts, and finishing second in all but one event, Amador High School's track team blitzed undersized and outmanned Foothill 115-20 at Amador yesterday.

The meet was virtually over after the first few events, with only Foothill's girls team making any kind of run at Amador before falling 63-27.

To give an idea of what kind of laughter it was, Amador's Head Coach, Rich Canfield had his pole vaulters run the two mile. The vaulters finished one, two, three as no Foothill runners were entered.

The Dons also swept the first three spots in six other events, including the pole vault where Amador's Bret McGuinness had a lifetime best vault of 12'3".

"It's a shame we had such tough meets at the beginning of the season and now the easy ones at the end," said Coach Canfield about his win.

"We're really going to have to work hard at practice to get ready for League Finals as these kind of meets don't help much."

Coach Canfield singled out two Sophomores as the athletes with the best performances of the day. One, Jim Biegel, turned in a 15.6 in the 120 High Hurdles, only six tenths of a second off the school record. "Jim is very capable of beating that record," said Canfield. The other was weightman Chuck Grandon who had a first in the shotput and a second in the discus.

The Don's had a double winner in Steve Peck. Peck had a 10.5 in the 100 and followed with a fine 24.0 in the 220.

Over on the ladies side, Foothill's Geck was the only double winner for both teams taking the 880 and the mile run.

The Falcon females made it a race for the first few events but sweeps in the High Jump and Discus paved the way for the Don victory.

Frosh-Soph saw much of the same kind of thrashing that took place in the varsity meet, the Falcon "B" team losing 116-19. The Don captured every first except the 440 relay and had sweeps in the 100, 330 Low Hurdles, Shotput, High Jump, 70 High Hurdles, 220, Long Jump and Pole Vault. The Don's also had a triple winner in Andy Lutz (Triple Jump, Long Jump and High Jump), and a double winner in Paul Goodison (70 High Hurdles and 220).

The win gives Amador's varsity a 5-1 record, while it's Frosh Soph moves to 6-0 and the girls to 4-2. The Don's final opponent will be California next week, then the League Finals at Granada High May 11-13.

Fred Barrett pumped in 23 markers to pace the winners. Bill Way was the only other Pizza Arcade player to score in double figures as he had 15 points.

Mike Willis scored 16 points as New York Life took a 38-27 victory over Ideal Dryage in another contest. Lee Bederman and Mark Bartlaw each had eight markers to pace the losers. Bob Serg added six.

A well - balanced attack was the key as the No Stars defeated White Galaxy, 48-37.

Jim Schmidt sparked the winners with 16 points and Keith Braaten added 13. Hugh Moncur was the other No Star player in double figures with 11 markers.

The winners trailed at halftime, 23-21 but pumped 27 points through the hoop in the second half to secure the victory. Schmidt scored eight markers in each half.

Coliseum ready

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Reservations will be accepted starting May 5 for 138 luxury suites on the rim of the Los Angeles Coliseum, officials say.

The Coliseum commission decided Wednesday on a financing plan to refurbish the 53-year-old structure. The cost of one of the suites will be a $125,000 bond and a five-year lease at $20,000 a year.

Rental of the suites is to provide funds to finance over-all improvements to the Coliseum at no cost to taxpayers, according to Commission President Pete Schabarum, a county supervisor.

BICENTENNIAL FACTS

On March 20, 1776, a New York printer complained to the Committee of Safety that local merchants had harassed him for printing a reply to Thomas Paine's "Common Sense". He was accused of disloyalty to the patriotic cause and all of his leaflets were destroyed. The World Almanac reports

'Hoopers' to appear

"The Hoopers" of Sacramento, nationally renowned gospel evangelistic music group, with appearances on television and most recently at the Oakland Coliseum, will conduct this Sunday's evening worship services at 7:00 p.m. at the Parkway Baptist Church, 7485 Village Parkway, Dublin. The public is invited. For information call 828-0359.

Spring spiritual Baptist revivals

LIVERMORE — Pastor Ron G. Cunningham of the Granada Baptist Church, 945 Concannon Blvd., announces its preparation for a series of Spring Spiritual Revival meetings to start this Sunday at their regular 11 a.m. services, and continuing each evening until May 7. Sunday evenings service will be at 7 p.m. with the succeeding evenings, Monday through Friday, at 7:30 p.m. Pastor Cunningham expects your participation will result in a week of spiritual growth and harvest.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Terrell Berry, pastor of First Southern Baptist Church, Chino, Calif. Special subjects to be discussed will be: Monday, emphasis will be given to men and the family; Tuesday, good neighbors and family; Wednesday, Sunday school and the family;

Thursday, old fashioned and family relationships, and Friday, Youth and family night.

For Thursday's services you are invited to come dressed in old fashioned clothes and stay after services for fellowship, old fashioned ice cream, pie and coffee.

An open invitation is extended to the public, hoping to provide an opportunity for an encounter with God. Nursery care will be provided at all services.

Lay leaders working to make this time of spiritual renewal a real blessing are: Prayer Leader Charles Cain; Prospects Gene Sharon; Visitation Enlistment Sceless Morgan; Promotion Lynne Bennett; Music Leader Anabeth Field; Music Director Jack Field; Publicity Vi Denison.

Church news

W.E. Nebo to be installed Pastor

LIVERMORE — The Reverend William E. Nebo, recently elected by the congregation and the San Francisco Presbytery, will be officially installed as senior pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Livermore, Sunday, May 2, at 7 p.m. He has served as interim head of staff for the past 12 months for the church for which he became assistant pastor, January of 1972, when he and his wife moved to Livermore. It wasn't long after that he became associate pastor, with primary responsibility for youth programs.

Mr. Nebo is a native Californian, a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles and San Francisco Theological Seminary. Before coming to the Livermore church, Mr. Nebo was assistant pastor at First United and Portalhurst Presbyterian Churches in San Francisco.

The Rev. Robert Vogt, pastor of Pleasanton's First Presbyterian Church, will be the San Francisco Presbytery representative. The Charge to the Congregation will be given by the Rev. Paul Gertmenian, while the Rev. Robert Bulkley will give the Charge to the Candidate. Elders Gib Marguth and Penny Deleray will be representing the Session and the Congregation.

Members and friends are invited to attend this installation service. A reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church will follow.

Good-by Jordons

LIVERMORE — A "One - Time - In - All - Eternity" celebration is planned for this Sunday at Asbury United Methodist Church as a godspeed sendoff for Assistant Pastor Milton E. Sluder-Jordan and his wife, staff-seminarian Kathy Sluder-Jordan, who are leaving for North Carolina. The Rev. Sluder-Jordan will receive his first appointment in his home conference, the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, at their June session of Annual Conference.

The Pastor - Parish Relations Committee has presented the following schedule for this Sunday only: 9:30 a.m., all gather together for morning worship service in the sanctuary; 10:30, a farewell reception for the Sluder-Jordans in the Butler Building; brief program and presentation, reception line and refreshments; 11:30, celebration of Communion in the sanctuary.

Sabbath celebration

LIVERMORE — Sabbath, May 1, will be a special day at the Livermore Seventh-day Adventist Church, 243 Scott St., when the Leonard Venden family from Deer Park bring the six members of their versatile group to present a service at 11 a.m., featuring a selection of inspirational music, narration and witness for Christ.

Preceding the 11 a.m. worship hour, Sabbath school classes for all ages are held at 9:30 a.m. — small children to adults.

A fellowship dinner will be held following the worship hour and all are invited to attend this as well as a special singingspiration beginning at 2:30 p.m. Sabbath afternoon. The Venden family will again lead out during this song fest.

Presbyterian spring tea features child prodigy

PLEASANTON — The Women's Guild of the Presbyterian Church will hold its annual Spring Tea on Tuesday, May 4, at 1:30 p.m. in the Social Hall. Maud Millering, general chairman, proudly announces that 12-year-old musical child prodigy, pianist Mark Anderson, will be featured in a varied program which also includes vocalist Janet Werner, accompanied by Sara Gamache and flutist Allison Bibley.

Mark, seventh grader at Harvest Park School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Anderson, 10 year residents of Pleasanton. Pupil of Trula Whelan of Hayward, who only accepts gifted pupils, he was last year's prize winner in the Youth Competition under the sponsorship of the Livermore Symphony. During the summer he was allowed to enroll in a jazz course in Hayward, which usually admits adults only.

Mark has already started his own combo at Harvest Park School and is writing the scores for their red-tions. He has chosen Chopin's Scherzo, Opus 31 to play at the tea — an ambitious work for a well-rounded boy who enjoys athletics, especially soccer, equally as well as music. Soloist Janet Werner will entertain with a selection of well-chosen popular and religious songs.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Alma Rasmussen and Mrs. Vivian Torrey. Tickets may be had from members of the guild or at the door for a donation of $1.25. Reservations may be called into 846-2389.

Want a finer lawn? Then read this!

Warren's research facilities, established twenty years ago, have under observation over 1,000 strains and species of grasses. Some of these grasses have been patented and are available to the public in various parts of the United States and Europe.

About ten years ago one of these new grasses...

BenSun (A-34)
KENTUCKY BLUEGRASS

...was introduced into California. Its performance has proven to be outstanding for these reasons:

- Rated first in shade tolerance (up to 65%) yet grows vigorously in full sunlight.
- Rated first in wear tolerance by a university doing turfgrass research. (Of eighteen top bluegrasses tested, for golf course use, BenSun (A-34) was the only grass to receive an excellent rating.)
- Quick to recover when injured and is used extensively on athletic fields and golf courses.
- Does well in most soils, and is highly drought resistant.
- Thrives in hot or cold climates, at high or low altitudes.
- Requires less fertilizer to keep it healthy.
- Can be mowed down to 1/2 inch when planted in sunlight.
- One pound of seed will plant 2,000 sq. ft. of new lawn area at a cost of only 1/4¢ per square foot.
- BenSun (A-34) Lawngrass Seed carries this guarantee: "If you are not satisfied with the results obtained from this seed, return the empty box with proof of purchase within 6 months to Warren's Turf Nursery, Inc. You will be supplied with more seed or your money will be refunded, your choice."

Available as Sod, Sod Plugs and Seed!

To keep your lawn green and healthy use WARREN'S LAWN FOOD, specially formulated (10-8-4 analysis for proper balance) to give your lawn the proper food nutrients. Use the lawn food the grass professionals use.

Based on published EPA highway estimates of V-8 pickups.

Ford can go about as far on $3 as Chevy can go on $4.

Best V-8 gas mileage. Here's the record of government EPA tests printed in the EPA's Gas Mileage Guide. Ford leads all pickups in V-8 gas mileage—by a big margin.

31% more mpg. In highway driving, Ford's F-100 with optional 302 V-8 rated 31% better than Chevrolet's V-8. This means Ford can go about as far on $3 as Chevrolet can on $4. Think how that can add up every month and year you own a Ford!

Built Ford tough, too. Only Ford pickups have rugged Twin-I-Beam front suspension... all-welded Styleside box with curved inner walls and 185 sq. ft. of galvanized sheetmetal to resist rust. Try a tough '76 Ford, the V-8 economy champ, at your Ford Dealer's now!

Gays BAR too tough

Lesher News Bureau
OAKLAND — Homosexuals have made a pitch for a policy to loosen alleged discrimination in hiring against a person's "sexual orientation" by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

BART directors, though, took no action when the matter came before them last week.

Two members of homosexual liberation groups asked BART's administration committee to consider a "sexual orientation policy." Basically, the groups were asking for changes in technical language regarding BART hiring and contracts to make homosexuals more easily accepted.

Randy Alfred of the Bay Area Gay Liberation Front and Hank Wilson of the California Committee for Equal Rights had asked that the sexual orientation policy also be extended to BART contractors and suppliers.

Camp Fire Girls rekindling flames

Camp Fire Girls of the Bay Area are looking for "Wo-he-lo Girls" who were Camp Fire Girls from 1910 to 1930 to attend "An American Feeling" a bicentennial salute to America, Sunday, May 23 at the Oakland Auditorium.

"American Feeling" will be a day of spectaculars with girls attending from six greater bay area councils; a circus, 80 member KALO Choir; the Wells Fargo Wild Bill's stage coach; dancers; bagpipe band and a parade. Exhibits by the girls of projects they have done to celebrate America's bicentennial year will also be on display.

Honored guest will include Winnie the Pooh and Smokey the Bear, Mrs. Charlotte Rowe (Mother Goose at Children's Fairland) who will be Grand Marshal for the parade, William Penn Mott Jr., George Mardikian, Mayor Reading of Oakland, State Senator John Nejedlik, State Senator Nicholas Petris and Secretary of State March Fong.

Persons who were in Camp Fire during 1910-1930 are requested to contact the Oakland Camp Fire office by letter at 1201 E 14th Street, Oakland 94606.

Dublin gal will visit Holland

PLEASANTON — Jean Aronson, a resident of this community and student at Dublin High School, has been selected to participate in the Youth For Understanding International exchange summer program.

Miss Aronson will be living with a family in The Netherlands. Youth For Understanding, headquartered in Ann Arbor, Michigan, offers to high school students between the ages of 15 and 18 a family living experience in 23 countries in Europe, South America, Africa, and the Far East.

Those wishing to learn more about this intercultural program should contact: Fenton Kovic, 584 W Remington Dr., Sunnyvale, Calif. 94087 (Telephone 408-732-5421).

VFW flags donated

The Livermore Valley V.F.W. Auxiliary Post 7265 donated American flags to four convalescent hospitals and nursing homes in Livermore in celebration of their bicentennial week, April 26 through May 1.

Recipients of the flags were: Pine Rest Home, Casa Linda Convalescent Nursing Home, Bethany Home and the Livermore Manor Convalescent Hospital.

Chairman for the project was Trustee Jane Picardi, assisted by Patriotic Instructor Selma Tyler and President, Millie Turner.

Volunteer vets dinner tonight

PLEASANTON — Fire and police will honor their retired volunteers with a dinner at Hap's Restaurant. Tickets are still available from fire department secretary Liz Flores, 846-3202, ext. 271. They cost $5 per person and the dinner will begin at 7 p.m. Tickets also will be available at the door.

LEGAL NOTICE

from an existing shopping center. When the property was initially shown to be within a flood zone, subsequent maps have shown it to be above the future 100 year flood level. There are no physical obstacles to development. The Public and Institutional District abutting the residential properties was intended as a buffer to receive the noise from excessive noise. The proposal, placing a parking lot in this location, would increase the noise levels in the yards and homes of the residents but would not be expected to exceed noise standards for residential areas, especially since the area would be quiet at night. It is the finding of the City Engineer that the project would not create, to a significant degree, any of the effects enumerated in the Environmental Impact Guidelines and Procedures which indicate that the environment may be harmed.

For more information on this case, contact the Department of Housing and Community Development, 200 Bernal Avenue, Pleasanton, California 94566, telephone 846-3202.

Unless any written appeals of this case are received by this department within ten (10) days of the above date or publication of this notice in the Pleasanton Times, which ever is later, this decision will become effective.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE A
NEGATIVE DECLARATION
PROJECT DESIGNATION:
UP-76-11

In accordance with the provisions of the Environmental Impact Guidelines and Procedures, conditional use permit application UP-76-11, an application to build and operate a service station, has been determined not to require an EIR, but rather a negative declaration.

The project consists of constructing a 3,730 square foot canopy housing service islands, a 345 square foot office building, and a rest room structure to comprise a self-service station operation on an approximately 1.11 acre site located on the northwest corner of Highway Road and Johnson Industrial Drive. The facility would include landscaping, on-site parking, a recreational vehicle disposal facility, and a free standing sign.

The proposed use, located on a site in an industrial zone adjacent to existing freeway commercial development including additional service stations, is compatible with the surrounding uses. The site is not subject to any of the effects enumerated in the Environmental Impact Guidelines and Procedures which indicate that the environment may be harmed.

For more information on this case, contact the Department of Housing and Community Development, 200 Bernal Avenue, Pleasanton, California 94566, telephone 846-3202.

Unless any written appeals of this case are received by this department within ten (10) days of the above date or publication of this notice in the Pleasanton Times, which ever is later, this decision will become effective.

NEGATIVE DECLARATION
PROJECT DESIGNATION:
PUD-72-2

In accordance with the provisions of the Environmental Impact Guidelines and Procedures, final development plan approval PUD-72-2, an application to construct a retail commercial building, as a whole, is not subject to an EIR but rather a negative declaration.

The project consists of the construction of a 22,000 square foot, one story commercial building in the existing Valley Plaza Shopping Center located north of Highway Road and Johnson Industrial Drive. Zoning for the property is PUD (Planned Unit Development) District.

The use of the site, located in a previously approved and developed planned commercial center, is consistent with the surrounding commercial development. No physical developmental constraints are present at the site. The finding of the City Engineer is that the project would not create, to a significant degree, any of the effects enumerated in the Environmental Impact Guidelines and Procedures which indicate that the environment may be harmed.

For more information on this case, contact the Department of Housing and Community Development, 200 Bernal Avenue, Pleasanton, California 94566, telephone 846-3202.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Sealed proposals will be received at the Office of Engineering Services of the City of Pleasanton, Civic Center 200 Bernal Avenue, Pleasanton, California, until May 21, 1976, 10:00 A.M., P.D.S.T. for the construction of a new plant to treat the effluent of the City of Pleasanton's wastewater treatment plant located at the intersection of Highway Road and Johnson Industrial Drive. The project is designated as follows:

The City of Pleasanton reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informality or irregularity in any bid, or to delete portions thereof.

Prevailing wage rates have been adopted by Resolution No. 75-59 by the City Council, and are on file with the City Clerk. It will be necessary for a notice of the existence of said resolution to be provided to each employee who works on the project or post the notice in a conspicuous place at the job site.

A Statement of Financial Responsibility, Technical Ability and Experience, and a list of Subcontractors shall accompany all proposals. Failure to furnish such statements may result in rejection of the proposal. Forms for these statements will be furnished by the City Engineer.

Honda Civic CVCC Sedan

Whether you choose the Honda Civic CVCC Sedan, Hatchback, 5 speed, or Station Wagon you get extras you don't pay extra for. Every Honda has rack and pinion steering, front wheel drive and independent Macpherson Strut Suspension. These features combine to provide an exceptionally stable ride and handling qualities normally found only in cars costing a great deal more.

Then there's the reliable Honda CVCC Advanced Stratified Charge Engine. Meets all the 1976 emissions requirements without a catalytic converter. Doesn't need unleaded fuel and in EPA lab tests for highway driving the 4 speed got 42 mpg, the 5 speed got 43 mpg.

Now what could be more beautiful than a '76 Honda. See them: all in our showroom. Take a test ride... you'll like the experience.

Blood pressure warning

Free clinic checks offered

LIVERMORE — Do you know what your blood pressure is?

If you're over 30, you ought to. "People erroneously think high blood pressure is an exclusive disease of the senior citizen," warn the nurses at Twin Valley Red Cross Blood Pressure Center.

"One reason for this is people in their 30's can have hypertension (high blood pressure) and go undetected for years."

So what?

So, high blood pressure can lead to stroke, heart failure, kidney failure and heart attack.

There are no warning signs and no symptoms with early hypertension.

It only takes a moment to have your blood pressure checked. And, it's free, if you stop down at the friendly blood pressure clinic held Wednesday mornings, 9 - 11:30 a.m., at the Red Cross building at 373 North

Don't be surprised by the hugs and squeals and cheers emanating from the wood-paneled waiting room. Once patients begin to realize how important their blood pressure is, and once they receive counseling on how to bring their pressure down to normal, they enjoy gaining control over this vital aspect of their health.

They also enjoy rewarding the cheerful volunteer nurses with everything from kisses to meringue pies.

During May, a special effort is being made to encourage anyone who doesn't know his or her blood pressure to drop by the Red Cross building, no appointment needed. The staff of nurses has been increased to take care of the extra patients — so, drop in for a quick check that could save your life!
